

Harrison Hotel

The project included new interior finishes, replacement of existing windows with new wood windows, and modification of three offices. Work also included new mechanical ventilation and a new hydronic heating system.

Building remained occupied during construction and work was performed in phases, one floor at a time.

Project Types

- > Occupied Rehab
- > Historical Rehab

Renovation of a seven-story, 84-unit residential hotel in downtown Oakland built in 1914.

Oakland, CA

Client/Owner

Resources for Community Development (RCD)

Architect

SGPA Architecture and Planning

Square Feet/Size

42,000 SF/84 Units

Duration

12 Months

Completion

August 2006

Project Cost

$3,334,861

Project Manager

Jansen Lum, D+H Construction

Construction Manager

Lauren Brewer Development Services

Harrison Hotel (Oakland, CA) | Photo Gallery

