

Mouang Blackshere

Accounts Payable + Accounts Receivable Specialist

With a strong background in payroll and administrative support, Mouang brings more than a decade of experience in finance and office operations to her role. Prior to joining D+H, Mouang worked in payroll and HR roles for companies across the automotive, banking, and education sectors. Her detail-oriented approach and excellent customer service skills make her a reliable partner in ensuring financial processes run smoothly. Whether processing payroll for hundreds of employees or managing vendor relations, Mouang consistently brings a calm, methodical presence to high-volume environments.

At D+H, she provides essential accounting and clerical support to the finance department, including managing accounts payable transactions and coordinating vendor payments with accuracy and efficiency.
