

Taryn Harm

Assistant Project Manager

Taryn brings a wide range of experience in coordination, management, design, and administration for construction projects and beyond. Most recently, she worked as a code enforcement planner for the Zoning & Compliance Division of the Planning Department at the City & County of San Francisco. Prior to that, Taryn coordinated projects with a design-build firm in San Francisco where she focused on developing systems and improving processes to deliver positive results to clients. Banking experience and food service management round out Taryn's ability to manage diverse types of people in fast-paced environments.

With a BS in Architectural Studies from the University of Wisconsin at Milwaukee and a Masters of Urban Planning from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, Taryn is eager to use her skills and experience to help manage efficient projects and make a lasting impact on surrounding communities.
